General C. P. Cabell, USAF
Deputy Director of Central Intelligence
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear General Cabell:

Thank you very much indeed for your kindness in forwarding copy of your address of 16 October to the National Guard Association.

I take this opportunity of forwarding to you copy of a prospectus on the so-called Orlando Plan, now embodied in legislation in the form of Senate Bill 1689, by Messrs. Douglas, Mundt and Case, on which hearings were held June 17 - 19 this year before the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee, the complete transcript of which hearings is available from Senator Dodd's office, as chairman of the subcommittee holding the hearings.

I believe this document of the Senate Committee is a very substantial and important one in view of its many expert contributors, not necessarily including my own amateur offering.

I thought you might like to have for your files a list of our documents as published since the beginning of our research and publications work in 1951.

Thank you again for your prompt forwarding of your most important address at San Antonio. Unless I hear from you to the contrary, I assume that this is now completely in the public area and can be circulated to interested members of the public for their use of the Congress.

Very sincerely yours.

Arthur G. McDowell, Executive
Secretary-Treasurer
